HONORING REVEREND SNOW PEABODY

Mr. Speaker,

I rise today to honor Reverend Snow Peabody for his continued efforts to give back to the community of Arizona, specifically through his work with Teen Challenge.

Mr. Peabody has been working with Teen Challenge of Arizona since 1971 and has served as the Executive State Director for over 50 years.

Reverend Peabody married his lovely wife, Ladelle, in 1976. They were married for 49 years and have three children: Sunny, Heaven, and Crystal Rain, as well as five grandchildren.

Ladelle went home to be with the Lord at age 70 on March 14, 2025. She was a blessing to all who met her and faithfully served as the Teen Challenge of Arizona State Music Director.

Ladelle could be seen at any of the five Arizona Teen Challenge centers singing songs of praise, engaging with everyone there—the men, women, and especially the children—and bringing a joyful smile to each person she met.

Together, Snow and Ladelle led Teen Challenge for half a century, reaching and impacting countless lives. They helped establish Home of Hope, a Teen Challenge center in Casa Grande, and the Springboard Home for Girls in Oro Valley.

I was honored to speak at the Teen Challenge banquet last November where Reverend Peabody shared about leaving a seat open at his table because he knows Ladelle is there, and she would not want to miss it. She was with him at every dinner and banquet, and at that special event, he left a seat open in her honor.

At that very moment, it became clear to everyone in the room how much Teen Challenge meant to both of them.

I thank Reverend Snow Peabody for his many years of incredible service with Teen Challenge. May Ladelle's legacy live on forever.
